ITINERARY 5

Colombian Natural Essence

Embark on an 11-day journey through Colombia, a country celebrated for its astonishing biodiversity, where the natural richness of the Amazon, Orinoco, Andes, and Pacific intertwine into one vibrant destination. We begin in Bogotá for an introduction to the group before flying to Guaviare. There, we explore the majestic Puerta de Orion and the Serranía de La Lindosa Protected Natural Reserve, discovering ancient rock formations and the archaeological site of Cerro Pinturas, a testament to pre-Columbian cultures.

We continue our journey into the tropical rainforest of the bio-geographical Chocó in the Colombian Pacific region. We will visit San Cipriano, enjoying its crystalline waters, and then Bahía Málaga, where the diversity of the flora is as impressive as its beaches and waterfalls hidden among mangroves.

The tour then takes us to the heart of the Coffee Cultural Landscape, recognised worldwide by UNESCO. In Marseille, we dive into the world of chocolate and coffee, exploring a traditional coffee farm. We conclude our journey in Santa Rosa de Cabal, where the famous hot springs offer a well-deserved rest and rejuvenation for body and mind after days full of adventure and discovery.

This trip is not only an exploration of landscapes, but a deep insight into the culture and nature that make Colombia a destination like no other.

Day 1 – Bogotá:

Your adventure begins in Bogotá, the vibrant capital of Colombia. Upon arrival, you'll be greeted with a welcome dinner, where you'll begin to savour the rich dishes of Colombian cuisine. This will be the perfect time to get to know your fellow travellers and prepare your spirit for the immersion in the natural and cultural treasures that await you.

Day 2 – Guaviare:

Guaviare welcomes you with its majestic nature and unique landscapes. The Orion Gate, an imposing rock formation, looks like a portal to another world. Exploring this hidden part of the country will connect you deeply with nature, as you discover the geological history of this ancient region. It is a magical place where you will feel like you are walking in an ancient natural temple.

Day 3 – Cerro Azul:

Cerro Azul, a sacred place filled with mysterious prehistoric pictograms, will take you back in time. Here, in the middle of the jungle, you will see ancient art that tells stories of the civilisations that inhabited these lands long before us. Each trace on the rocks is a silent testimony of the ancient peoples who left their mark on this mysterious landscape.

ITINERARY DAY BY DAY

Day 4 – Guaviare rainforest:

Delve deep into the rainforest of Guaviare. Surrounded by lush vegetation, crystalline rivers and extraordinary fauna, you will discover the secrets that this jungle region jealously guards. It is an immersive experience that will allow you to connect with the purest essence of nature. The sounds of the jungle and the aroma of the damp earth will envelop you completely.

Day 5 – Cali:

After your time in Guaviare, you will travel to Cali, Colombia's most lively city. Here, the rhythm of salsa beats on every corner. But this day is only a prelude to what is to come, as you prepare for an exciting expedition to the heart of the biogeographical Chocó, one of the most biodiverse regions on the planet.

Day 6 – San Cipriano:

San Cipriano is a hidden paradise where the crystal clear waters of the river invite you to refresh yourself. You will walk through the tropical rainforest, surrounded by nature that seems untouched by time. Immerse yourself in the river and feel how the pure water revitalises every fibre of your being, while enjoying the tranquillity that only such a remote place can offer.

ITINERARY DAY BY DAY

Day 7 – Bahía Málaga:

Bahía Málaga is the Caribbean of the Colombian Pacific. You will sail along the coast, among dense mangroves that hide virgin beaches and secret waterfalls. Here, nature and biodiversity will amaze you, and you will discover a part of the world where time seems to stand still. The ocean breeze and birdsong will accompany this unique experience in one of the most secret and beautiful corners of Colombia.

Day 8 – Coffee cultural landscape:

Travel to the Coffee Cultural Landscape, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This green part of Colombia envelops you with the aroma of freshly roasted coffee, as you discover how tradition and coffee culture have shaped this place. Every sip of coffee will be a direct connection with the land, its crops and its people.

Day 9 – Marsella:

Marsella is a charming village where Colombian authenticity shines around every corner. You will participate in a fruit wine and chocolate tasting, surrounded by green mountains and fresh air. Here, the secrets of cocoa and local fruits are revealed in every bite, transporting you to a world of unique flavours. It's a day dedicated to sensory delight amidst landscapes that look like something out of a painting.

ITINERARY DAY BY DAY

Day 10 – Santa Rosa de Cabal:

Immerse yourself in the hot springs of Santa Rosa de Cabal, a natural refuge where hot water gushes from the earth to relax body and mind. Surrounded by waterfalls and mountains, this is the perfect place to end your trip in peace and quiet. You will also visit a coffee farm where you will learn the secrets of the famous Colombian coffee, from the harvest to the cup, in an environment that will make you feel like a part of nature.

Day 11 – Pereira:

On the last day of your journey, you will return to Pereira for your flight home. Filled with unforgettable memories, you will say goodbye to Colombia knowing that you have explored some of the best kept secrets of its nature and culture. This adventure will not only leave you with memories, but also a deeper connection to the land and its wonders.
